8E: Vocabulary Check

Study Skill Strengthen your vocabulary. Use these pages and add cues and summaries by applying the Cornell Notetaking style.

Write the definition for each word or term at the right. To check your work, fold the paper back along the dotted line to see the correct answers.

____________________________________________________________ irrational numbers
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

face

area

volume

prism
8E: Vocabulary Check (continued)

Write the vocabulary word or term for each definition. To check your work, fold the paper forward along the dotted line to see the correct answers.

a number that cannot be written as the ratio of two integers a flat surface of a three-dimensional figure that is shaped like a polygon

the number of square units a figure encloses

the number of cubic units needed to fill the space inside a three-dimensional figure a three-dimensional figure with two parallel and congruent polygonal faces, called bases